Redwood City Joins Nation in Honoring War Dead

By JUNE ANDERSON

Joining with millions of other Americans throughout the world today, Redwood City residents paid solemn tribute to the war dead in Memorial Day services Wednesday morning at the Sequoia Theater, followed by a large parade to the Union Cemetery for graveside ceremonies at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

At 2 p.m. in the National Cemetery, San Bruno, San Mateo County officials attended services presented under the auspices of the United War Veterans' Committee of the county. The Hon. Milton Sapiro, judge of the San Francisco municipal court, was principal speaker.

While rain fell outside, Maj. Thomas R. White, flight surgeon on the Doolittle raid over Tokyo, told hundreds of Redwood City residents in the Sequoia Theater at 10:30 a.m. of the bravery and gallantry of our Chinese Allies. White described details of the raid and preparation for it in a calm, deliberate voice.

As the principal speaker for the Memorial Day services here, the surgeon told how his B-25 bombed Kobe and of the long, dangerous wait on a Chinese island before he could join Capt. Ted Lawson, whose life he later saved.

White, introduced by the Rev. Walter B. Smith, followed Norman Abraham's recitation of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. S/Sgt. Angelo Mattei, a veteran of 103 missions over occupied Europe, preceded Abrahams and urged that the people of this nation remember the living crippled and maimed men who were wounded on battlefields, as well as the men who fell.

Millard W. Berry, general chairman of the Redwood City services, opened the program and was followed by the Rev. John P. Cavanagh's presentation of the invocation. The Volunteer Port Security Band played the Star Spangled Banner, after the presentation of colors by the Canadian Legion Color Guard.

Gold Star Mothers were honored during the services which were closed after 30 seconds of silence, the benediction by William H. Augustus and the retirement of colors by the Canadian Legion Color Guard.

Distinguished guests at the San Bruno services were Judges Aylett Cotton and Maxwell McNutt; County Clerk William H. Augustus, County Executive Frederick Peterson, County Supervisors E. R. McDonald, Thomas L. Hickey, Col. H. W. Edmonds, A. S. Hatch and Martin A. Poss.

In Redwood City, a light drizzle fell on hundreds who participated in the all-city parade from Broadway and Middlefield Rd., along Main St. to Five Points and up Woodside Rd. to the Union Cemetery. Redwood City police and fire departments joined in the march, which formed at 11 a.m.

Flags of all the United Nations adorned the county courthouse as organizations gathered for the parade. Participating were the color guard, U. S. Naval Air Station, Moffett Field; St. Joseph's Military Academy; Gold Star Mothers and guests in cars; American Red Cross units.

In Division 2 were the San Mateo County Boy Scouts Band; the National Colors; Gen. George S. Evans Relief Corps; Spanish-American War veterans and auxiliary and Daughters of 1898. In Division 3 were the McKinley School Drum and Bugle Corps; Native Daughters of the Golden West, the local fire departmnet and the California State Guard.

The Volunteer Port Security band joined with the Junior Women's Volunteer Service, Fraternal Order of Owls and the auxiliaries to world war organizations in division four. Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, Troop 105 drum and bugle corps, Redwood City Sea Scouts and Veterans of World Wars I and II paraded in division five.

At the Union Cemetery, the Rev. Egbert Clark offered the prayer followed by the Rev. John Marozik in an address to the Unknown Dead.

Representatives of the George S. Evans Relief Corps, Daughters of Union War Veterans, United Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary, American Legion Auxiliary, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary and the Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary placed wreaths on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Troop 105, Boy Scouts closed the ceremonies at the cemetery with taps and flag raising. Floyd Granger was in charge of the parade; Mrs. Mary Winter arranged the theater program.

Work for victory over Japan continued in most war plants and government offices as the nation observed its 77th Memorial Day.

Bus Lines File Rival Permits To Service Menlo

The Palo Alto City Lines and the Redwood City Lines, rival bus companies, have disclosed that they have filed applications with the railroad commission for permission to extend their service to Menlo Park and vicinity.

R. L. Martin of the Redwood City company appeared before the Menlo Park City Council Tuesday night to say that he would be able to start service within six weeks if the Palo Alto City Lines could be persuaded to withdraw its application. Martin said that his application would be approved immediately by the commission if it was unopposed.

Mayor Donald Fisher said that the council would have a meeting with John DeMeter of the Palo Alto City Lines to see if some agreement could be reached between the two companies.

After hearing several protests by nearby home owners the council passed the proposed ordinance to make a minor change in the building zoning of the 10-acre subdivision of the old Rosefield tract on Santa Cruz Ave.

C. V. Scott delivered a lengthy address on the injustice of allowing "cheap" housing in Menlo Park. He asked "Why should Menlo Park get the backwash of Palo Alto and Redwood City?" The council assured him that homes in the new subdivision would be in the $7000 class and would in no way lower the value of his estate.

The council received and filed an application for the annexation of the Brookdale tract by the City of Menlo Park. June 19 was the date set for a public hearing on the matter.

Park Comsr. Wallace Brown reported that he has filed an application with the WPB for a permit to construct bleachers at the recreation park baseball field.

Councilman Charles Burgess received the consent of the council to request the U. S. Department of Commerce to take a census of Menlo Park, providing it can be completed by June 30. Councilman Burgess explained that a sufficient increase in population would enable the city to file for a larger share of the state gasoline tax funds.

The council agreed to adjourn until May 29 at 7:30 p.m.

New Ambulance Row: Charge Accident Victim Kept Waiting

An automobile accident on Woodside Rd. in which two Redwood City motorists were seriously injured late Saturday afternoon Monday touched off a clash between operators of privately-owned ambulances and the county-operated ambulance service.

Joanne Tyrell, 21, 125 Oak St., suffered a possible head injury and a collarbone fracture when a tire on the automobile in which she was riding blew out and the car turned over. She was in a fair condition at a San Mateo hospital Monday.

Ray Allain, 26, 66 Murray Ct., driver of the car, suffered a back injury. He was in a satisfactory condition today, hospital aides reported.

The car was traveling east on Woodside Rd. one mile west of Alameda de las Pulgas when the accident occurred at 4:15 p.m.

R. H. Ratliff, operator of the Peninsula Ambulance Service, Monday charged that at 4:30 p.m. Saturday someone drove into his ambulance station here and asked that an ambulance be dispatched to the Woodside Rd. accident.

"We responded," Ratliff said, "and on arriving at the scene found a man and a woman lying in the road. The man was unconscious and the woman was in a semi-conscious condition. An officer from the California Highway Patrol was in charge of the accident. We were told by him to leave the injured alone, that the county ambulance had been called and that they would take care of the injured. We parked our ambulance at the side of the road and waited fully 10 minutes before the ambulance arrived.

"Numerous spectators were indignant and insisted that we move the injured to a hospital, that they had been waiting now for over a half hour for an ambulance. All we could do was to try to explain that we had been forbidden to move them.

"It seems to me that the nearest ambulance should be called and that the injured should be taken to the nearest hospital."

Ratliff declared this was not his first experience of this nature.

He said that on Apr. 12 he wrote a letter to Dr. Charles C. Gans, county health director, in which he stated:

"I am willing and anxious to co-operate in every way with the county authorities and the Community Hospital but feel that discrimination is shown in this matter. The first and most important objective of ambulance service is to relieve the suffering of the unfortunate victims of accidents in the shortest possible time, and this we are attempting to do."

He said there had been a reluctance on the part of dispatcher's office at Community Hospital to accept patients delivered there by his ambulance.

Twenty-four-hour county-operated ambulance service started Apr. 2. County Executive Frederick Peterson decreed that Community Hospital would be the "clearing house" for all accident cases.

City Pet Show To Be Saturday

Redwood City's annual pet show which is sponsored by the Redwood City Recreation Department will be held Saturday at Hawes Park.

The show is slated to get underway at 1:30 with B. B. Berman taking over the judging of all pets. Berman has acted in this capacity for the past two shows.

This show, which is open to all Redwood City children, is expected to bring one of the greatest collections of pets ever to be seen at any pet shows. Children will enter, fish, dogs, cats, goats, donkeys, fleas, rabbits and snakes.

Ribbon awards will be given to pets which place first, second and third.

Gambling? Here?

With San Mateo County authorities still denying knowledge Monday of any gambling going on within the county boundaries, Office of Price Administration announced that sedan service between San Francisco and a San Mateo County gambling place on Geneva Ave. had been broken up after a long investigation.

Confessions from 16 drivers transporting gamblers to and from the establishment on 50-cent-a-gallon black market gasoline have been obtained according to Robert L. Thompson Jr., chief criminal investigator in San Francisco.

Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore and Dist. Atty. Gilbert Ferrell strongly denied Monday that any gambling was going on in the county.

Woman Held for Hit-Run In S.M. Traffic Death

SAN MATEO — Mrs. Jean John, 21, of 423 W. 20th Ave., San Mateo, wife of a soldier who has just returned from 27 months' overseas, killed George Leith, 46, of 12 No. Delaware St., San Mateo, when the car she was driving struck him down about midnight Saturday, on Delaware St., south of Cypress Ave., in San Mateo.

Mrs. John admitted to Police Chief Robert O'Brien that she hit Mr. Leith and "got scared" and did not stop. She was to be instructed by Municipal Judge Francis W. Murphy Monday and will be arraigned Thursday. Se is free on $1000 cash bail, after being arrested on a hit-run charge.

Mrs. John and a woman companion, Mrs. Nadine Ganino, of 378 North Delaware St., San Mateo, and three sailors from Treasure Island were in Mrs. John's car, when the accident happened. The party had met at the Bay Meadows Tavern, left together in Mrs. John's car and was on the way to Mrs. Ganino's home.

"I saw a man walk into the left side of the car," Mrs. John told police," but Val (one of the sailors) told me not to worry as I did not kill anybody."

Police were notified by Emmett Crowley of 649 Elm St., San Carlos, that he saw a man lying in the street when he was driving south on Delaware, shortly after midnight. The man, George Leith, was taken to a San Mateo hospital and pronounced dead on arrival.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Reservations for the first period of Camp Pescadero which extends from June 24 to July 8, were nearing the capacity figure at the close of business Monday, according to an announcement by the office of the San Mateo County Council, Boy Scouts of America, today.

Acceptance of a limited number more would be made, it was said.

Scouts desiring to attend the second and third periods of camp were urged to forward immediately their applications with fees to the headquarters office to assure themselves of a place at the popular camping center. The dates for these final two-one-week periods are July 8 to 15 and July 15 to 22. The fee is $13 per week per boy or, if reservations are made for the two weeks, $25.

Transportation may be had by notifying the office at least one week in advance. The round-trip to the camp is provided for the minimum fare of $3 in addition to the camp fee. Ration requirements necessitate each camper submitting one blue stamp and one red stamp, of the group valid for the stated dates, for each week at the camp.

E. A. Barrer, scout executive, will be in direct charge of the program, assisted by a competent staff of junior and adult leaders. Features of the day's program will be swimming under the direction of an accredited staff of water-safety trained men, an intensive program of Scoutcraft affording opportunity for the individual to advance through scout rank requirements, a variety of games and sport events including baseball, volleyball, and barnyard golf with short and long hikes open to those who wish to explore the natural wonders of the area in which the camp is located.

In addition, three balanced, well-prepared meals will be served the campers in a central dining-hall, the scout band will provide martial music for regular and special ceremonies and campfires will provide fun, entertainment and inspiration to close the days' activities.

Visitors are welcomed to come to the campsite on Saturday afternoons and Sunday and were especially invited to attend the special campfire programs on Saturday nights, Barrer said. It was requested, however, that in view of the substantial diet that is provided to the scouts at regular meal times that no candies, cakes or other forms of refreshments be brought in by visitors.

Troops from the southern district of the San Mateo County Council won high awards at the recent Camp-o-ree held on May 19 and 20 at Flood Park near Atherton, according to W. P. Stevens, district commissioner who announced the standings as follows:

"A" Class troops and leaders—Troop 143, Hamilton L. Day; Troop 149, Kurt J. Wenzel; Troop 153, San Carlos, H. E. Purcell; Troop 154, San Carlos, Stewart Barber; Troop 159, Woodside, Fred Eilerman; Troop 160, E. H. George, and Troop 161, Belmont, Dr. D. R. Sears.

Qualified for "B" Class ratings were Troop 103, East Palo Alto, Lawrence Welch; Troop 104, L. W. Allen; Troop 105, T. J. Seitz; Troop 107, Menlo Park, Floyd C. Beach; Troop 108, Menlo Park, C. J. Oram; Troop 120, H. S. Sout; Troop 162, William S. Lane; Troop 163, Menlo Park, John C. Davenport; and Troop 161, San Carlos, George Cook. (Troops not otherwise noted are from Redwood City.)

A total attendance of some 1500 boys and leaders was also announced. Bert Werder, veteran scouter, was featured on the Saturday evening campfire program He discussed national defense measures.

Under the sponsorship of the Cooley Industries Air Scout Squadron No. 2 of the San Mateo County Council Boy Scouts of America was organized this past week under the leadership of F. J. Carsner, with J. E. Shoemaker as assistant squadron leader. W. L. Cooley, president of the supporting company, will serve as the chairman of the committee with E. C. Combs, H. C. Watson, G. M. Cooley, E. L. Brown, N. A. DeStafano and E. F. Moak as members.

Chet E. Wilson of the executive staff of the council and George Cook, Norman Naughten and Ferd Prince of the district organization and extension commission handled the details of the organization.

Charter members of the new unit include Ted Miller, John Bottini, Dick DeStafano, Rodman Moak, Bob Cook, Coleman Heffner, Owen Hall, Russell Pinkerton, Ronald Stuart, Martin Schaedla, Edie Dundas and Bryce Wheeler. Nick DeStefano has been named squadron pilot with Don Brown as the assistant squadron pilot. Miller and Hall are flight leaders.

The Air Scout program is the newest of the Senior Scout programs of the Boy Scouts of America and is for those interested in aeronautics who have passed their fifteenth birthday. Previous scout membership is not necessary to become an Air Scout.

Regular meetings of the unit will be held at the Cooley Industries Plant No. 1 on Wednesday evenings.

Troop 105: Practice by members of the drum corps who took part in the Memorial Day parade was a feature of the last meeting under the leadership of T. J. Seitz, scoutmaster. Twenty-one were present and a new patrol contest series was planned by troop leaders. Games closed the meeting.

Troop 154: Stewart Barber, scoutmaster, directed a recreation period and met with troop leaders to plan for the summer activities at the last meeting at the San Carlos School attended by 35 members.

Troop 104: With 21 in attendance the evening of May 22 was given over to Scout advancement with First Class and merit badge subjects being studied. L. W. Allen, scoutmaster, was in charge.

Troop 110: Encouraged by a record attendance of 17 at the last meeting at the Washington School, L. D. Irwin announced plans for continued summer activity and the scouts were enthusiastic with the prospects. Games closed the meeting.

Troop 160: Close-order drill and a game period featured the last meeting of the troop under the leadership of E. H. George, scoutmaster, with 22 members present. Several troop camps were planned at the leaders' council.

Troop 143: Routine business and games featured the last meeting of the troop under the direction of Hamilton L. Day, scoutmaster, who briefly reviewed the Camporee and complimented the group on the winning of an "A" rating.

Wayward Girls' Home Proposed

San Mateo County may get another "overflow" institution from San Francisco, if a proposal made Monday by San Francisco Supervisor Chester R. MacPhee works out.

Supervisor MacPhee proposed the establishment of an institution where promiscuous girls could be quarantined for venereal diseases and suggested as a possible location for the institution a building at Sharp Park bwned by the San Francisco Water Dept. The building was formerly used by the United States Immigration Service.

"Promiscuous girls who have committed no other crime than promiscuity are thrown into the county jail for quarantine along with known prostitutes," Supervisor MacPhee said. "We should have some rehabilitation program."

San Francisco already sponsors a home for wayward boys in San Mateo County, the Log Cabin Ranch at La Honda.

Blaze Extinguished At National Bearing

Redwood City firemen were called to the National Motor Bearing Co. plant Monday at 7 a.m., where they extinguished a fire in a trash box.

The blaze was near a ramp in the shim room, firemen said, and damage was slight.

Sunday at 8:07 a.m., firemen extinguished a small blaze at 1328 El Camino Real where fire damaged a wall and shelf in a rear room of the Deacon Club.

Firemen estimated damage at $50.

Valuable Accordion Stolen From Home

Theft of a $350 accordion from her home at 427 Spruce St. was reported to Redwood City police Saturday night by Mrs. Hazel Moyen.

Mrs. Moyen told officers she discovered the theft upon returning to the house shortly before 10 p.m. and finding a bedroom window open.

In World War I, 18 per cent of the wounded taken to evacuation hospitals died; in World War II, only three per cent.

Two Menlo Arrests For Drunk Driving

Two men were arrested and charged with drunken driving by Menlo Park police during the weekend, Police Chief Jack Yount said Monday.

Sunday at 2:08 a.m., William Kauti, 43, of 650 Hanover St., Palo Alto, was taken into custody on El Camino Real where officers said he was driving in an erratic manner. He is a plumber by trade, he told police.

Fred J. Pettijohn, 38, San Jose mechanic, was arrested Saturday at 6:35 p.m., after he had hit a parked automobile on El Camino Real, Yount declared.

Kauti was still in the county jail Monday, while Pettijohn posted $100 cash bail.

Shannon's Daughter, In Stabbing, Released

Bail for Master Sgt. Mike B. Williams, 43, of San Francisco, who Monday was charged with assault with a deadly weapon after a fracas on San Pedro Rd. near Colma in which a Mexican national was stabbed, was set Tuesday morning by Justice of the Peace R. A. Rapsey at Daly City at $2500.

Imelda S. Shannon, 35, daughter of former Supervisor Warren Shannon of San Francisco, Williams' companion who was held in jail here as a material witness, was released with no charge. Miss Shannon suffered a black eye and an injured right leg which she was unable to explain to authorities.

The Mexican national, Arturo M. Estrada, 24, who was struck on the head with a knife when, he claimed, he went to the aid of Miss Shannon, was treated at Community Hospital at San Mateo.

Former S.M. County Man Gets Year in Prison

Walter E. Bauer, alias St. Ritus Benda, former operator of a tavern at Lomita Park, has been sentenced to a year and a day at the Federal Correctional Institution at Texarkana, Tex., on a conviction of using the mails to promote fraud, Sheriff James J. McGrath's office was informed here Tuesday.

Bauer, who was convicted in New Orleans and received at the federal institution last Friday, was found guilty in February, 1939, of violation of liquor laws at Lomita Park and was fined $150.

Union Agent Says Strike At Jay-Dee Was Official

Charles Bruno, business agent of Leather and Novelty Workers' Union 31, AFL, Tuesday took exception to a story that a work stoppage last Wednesday at the Jay-Dee Leather Products Co. here was "unsanctioned."

Bruno said that the entire membership of his union employed at the plant had voted on the work stoppage and that there had been no dissenting vote. He said that at least 80 per cent of the plant's employes are members of his organization.

Both Charles Weeks, president of the company, and Comsr. William Foley of the United States Conciliation Service declared the one-day strike was not sanctioned.

The dispute was brought to a head, Bruno stated, by one employe who he claimed had been discharged without cause.

"The company had reinstated this employe but later had subjected her to such severe criticism that other employes joined in complaints and a special union meeting was held on the matter," Bruno stated.

A meeting of union officals, company representatives and Commissioner Foley was held to determine the procedure in event of further grievances.

Seventy-five persons are employed at the plant, according to Commissioner Foley. Between 50 and 60 per cent of the employes stopped work, Weeks said. They returned to work Thursday.

Sequoia Alumni Planning Dinner

New officers and board members of the Sequoia High School Alumni Assn. Tuesday night started tentative plans for next year's annual dinner meeting of the group.

Florence Tiedemann is the president of the organization, Alvina Mariana is vice president and Pat Dolan is secretary-treasurer.

Named to committees were Wesley Haydock, Rosalie Carrington, Robert Poole, Alvina Mariana and Walter Kellogg Jr., entertainment, and Wanda Sharp and Otto Tallent, publicity. Pat Dolan will have charge of ticket sales for the dinner, to be held Dec. 15. All those on the committees, with the exception of Kellogg, are members of the alumni board. Other members of the alumni board are Jane King and Pat Small. Donald L. Bogie is adviser of the group.

Next meeting of the board will be held July 3.

Leonard Thibault Home on Leave

Having received his commission as a second lieutenant in the United States Army, Leonard R. Thibault of Redwood City is spending a leave with his family before leaving for more training at Camp Wood, Tex.

The 27-year-old officer received his bars at Fort Benning, Ga. A graduate of Polytechnic High School in San Francisco, he was a draftsman prior to entering the army in January, 1944. His wife, Denise, and two children, Marie, 5, and Diane, 22 months live at 2162 Oak Knoll Dr. His father is Ralph Thibault, also of Redwood City.

Major and Mrs. A. E. Crocker of 246 Johnson Ave. have as their guests Ensign and Mrs. Perry W. Morton of Dallas, Tex. Ensign Morton is Mrs. Crocker's nephew.

Circus Tragedy: Two Performing Dogs Badly Burned, Train Halted by Fire

The show went on, as circus people say it must, but Jerry and Raffles weren't in the act when the Morales dogs went under the "big top" Tuesday.

The two fox terriers were victims of a fire that smouldered in a trailer aboard a flat-car as the circus train entered Redwood City Tuesday at 2:30 a.m.

Raffles Tuesday was in a San Carlos dog hospital where a veterinarian said the black and white terrier suffered from third degree burns on his body, and bad burns on his head and ears and in his mouth. Raffles will be hand-fed for some time to come, he said.

Jerry's wire-hair was badly scorched in many places and his eyes were nearly swollen shut Tuesday, but he fared the better of the two. After being treated by a veterinarian, he was returned to his pen at the circus grounds.

The fire smouldered on the loaded gondola car as the circus was coming from San Mateo where they presented their show Monday night.

Police Officers D. R. Morgan and A. C. Hoffmann saw the smoke and radioed for fire engines. Someone, in the meantime, halted the train between Maple and Main Sts.

Arriving firemen ripped loose the burning canvas and opened the smouldering cage to let the two burned dogs and four others escape. They quickly quenched the flames with water from a nearby fire hydrant.

The circus folks left their beds on the train and gathered to help in the rescue. They rounded up the uninjured dogs.

Jerry and Raffles were whisked away to the Redwood City Fire Station where Asst. Chief Richard Drivon sprayed the dogs' burns with tannic acid.

Trainer Sancho Morales watched with tears in his eyes.

Back at the train, firemen cleaned up the damage and the train was cleared from the main tracks.

Fire Chief Mark Ryan said the fire was probably started by a carelessly thrown cigaret. A train crewman reported he had seen a man on the car a short time before the blaze.

Woodside Man Held

George C. Morse, 35, warehouseman who resides on Portola Rd., Woodside, was charged with drunken driving by Redwood City police officers who took him into custody on Woodside Rd. near Union Ave. Tuesday at 8:25 p.m.

Scouts Lend Hand At Conference

Serving at the United Nations conference in San Francisco in the capacity of messengers, orderlies and special dispatch carriers were members of a provisional troop organized by the San Mateo County Council from high ranking scouts of the council on Wednesday, May 23, under the leadership of Chet E. Wilson, assistant scout executive; Ed Burton, scoutmaster, and Fred Benoit, council member.

Dick Rosek of Sea Scout Ship 154, San Carlos, was the senior patrol leader of the group with Grant Brown, Troop 142, San Mateo; Pierre Bouquet, Troop 92, Hillsborough; Dick Angus, Troop 107, Menlo Park, and Bob Cook of Ship 154 as patrol leaders.

MAN HELD FOR THEFT

Charged with petty theft, Richard Bojo, 20, of 428 Pine St., Redwood City, was taken into custody by Redwood City Police Tuesday night upon complaint of Martin Benson, who also resides at 428 Pine St.

Benson told police Bojo took a suit of clothes.

Skill in Thinning Out Gives High Food Yield

With few exceptions, more seeds of a vegetable are sown than there is room for plants to mature, so it becomes necessary to thin out the excess plants, to give room for the rest to develop fully.

When this is neglected, and too many plants are left, the harvest is lessened rather than increased, and the quality of the crop may be seriously affected. However you may dislike uprooting tiny plants which grew from seed which you sowed, it must be done.

Sowing thinly in the first place will greatly lessen the work of thinning, and also save seed. To make sure the seeds grow evenly, if your garden soil contains much clay, prepare a special lot of soil in which sand and humus are mixed freely to make it light and porous; and cover the seeds with this, instead of with the heavy garden soil. In sandy, or light loamy soil this will not be necessary.

When beets and carrots are sown thinly, thinning may be left until some are large enough to use.

It is the half-grown carrots that are most delicious, and the growth is so much more in length than in the diameter of the root that the thinning process does not disturb the others so much.

Turnips must be thinned before they begin to form. The early turnips are round and flat. They do not grow well if crowded. If thinning is postponed until the roots begin to form the growth of all is checked and the ravages of worms, which are always ready to feed on turnips, are likely to be fatal. If the young plants are pulled up so they stand 4 inches apart in the row in a remarkably quick time they will be large enough to use.

Beets are more easily handled than turnips when they are a little larger, and one should not fail to try a dish of beet tops with the tiny roots just beginning to form. It is a delicious introduction to the garden menu. The beets which are left in the ground should be spaced 2 inches apart.

Thin Lettuce Plants to Stand One Inch Apart, at First.

Salsify, parsnips and chicory, which are to remain in the ground all season, should be thinned early to 3 or 4 inches apart in the row. If your soil is rich the smaller interval will do, but if it is not, then give more room.

Bush lima beans will never develop properly if crowded. A foot and a half to 2 feet should be given to each plant for best results. Bush beans, green pod and wax, should have 3 or 4 inches, depending on the richness of the soil. Peas are not usually thinned but should be planted with plenty of room to grow.

Radishes are usually thinned by using them. This always results in a lot of imperfect specimens which must be thrown away. It is a good plan to thin the seedlings when they first appear.

Leaf lettuce should be thinned, when growth begins, to about one inch between plants. As lettuce is usually planted, this means discarding the big majority of the seedlings. Those remaining will develop rapidly, however, and soon will be large enough for some to be used. Pull up alternate plants for this use.

Seeds Welcome Gift in South Pacific

Gardens in which familiar flowers and vegetables are grown have become numerous at army posts throughout the South Pacific area, and have done much to combat homesickness among service men.

A packet of seeds enclosed with a letter will be welcomed by any member of the armed forces, according to Lt. Col. K. E. Nordgren, who says: "While most combat units move rather rapidly, service units remain in one place sometimes one or two years, so there is plenty of opportunity for them to see things mature."

Gardens have especial value near hospitals, where convalescent patients can work in them, and obtain not only the benefits of sunshine and exercise, but also the mental relaxation which work with the soil affords.

In the South Pacific climate seeds may be sown at any time of the year and most of our annual flowers and vegetables will thrive.

Among the flowers are calliopsis, cosmos, calendula, cleome, gaillardia, marigold, morning glory, nasturtium, petunia, portulaca, red salvias, snapdragon, verbena and zinnia.

While the tropical islands have an abundance of flowers such as we cannot grow, soldiers like to see the flowers with which they are familiar growing about their camps.

All the tender vegetables which we grow are said to thrive in the Pacific. Sweet corn is in heavy demand, followed by lima beans, cucumbers, eggplant, leaf lettuce, musk and watermelons, mustard, okra, peppers, pumpkins, squash and tomatoes.

It is reported that some vegetable seeds are now supplied by the army, but that flower seeds are not available except when sent from home, or obtained from Australia or New Zealand, both of which have extensive horticultural development.

17 Admitted To Citizenship

Seventeen San Mateo County residents were admitted to citizenship last week in the first of the monthly citizenship hearings. Citizenship hearings formerly were held only three times a year. Under a present ruling, they will be held the fourth Friday of each month.

The examinations were held in the court of Superior Judge A. R. Cotton.

Redwood City: Else Minges, 827 Upland Rd.; Victor Zertuche, 504 Hamilton St.

San Mateo: Domenica L. Devincenzi, Henry H. Matthaei, Amy C. M. Wilks, Vittorio Croaro, Eric R. Agur, Eleanor Leland.

South San Francisco: Vincenzo Uberti, Angelo Santos.

Menlo Park: Julianna Jozsa, Convent of Sacred Heart, Valparaiso Ave.; Regina Hoffman, 660½ Live Oak Ave.

San Carlos: Winifred M. Campbell, 777 Cordilleras Ave.

Others: Giuseppa Puccini, Daly City; Emanuele Delmonte, San Gregorio; Italo G. Marchi, El Granada; Maria A. Giurlani, Half Moon Bay.

Repatriations included Lena R. Giampietro, Canada Rd., Redwood City, and Amy F. Cornely, San Mateo.

Five petitions were continued for future hearings.

Redwood City Girl Injured in Crash

Two persons escaped with minor injuries at 12:50 a.m. recently when the automobile in which they were riding south on Portola Rd. west of Menlo Park ran off the road and hit two large oak trees, crashed broadside into another tree and ended up by hitting a telephone pole.

The car stopped 30 feet from the first point of impact, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Shirley F. Randow, 26, Rt. 1, Box 612, Redwood City, was treated at Palo Alto Hospital for contusions of the face and a leg injury. Joseph T. Randow, 35, Pan American Airways flight steward, who was driver of the car, suffered minor injuries but was not admitted at the hospital.

The car was badly damaged. The accident occurred four-tenths of a mile south of University Ave., west of Menlo Park.

BY JOE CABOOSE

Human reactions, an interesting study!

PFC Ted Norton of Los Gatos, an infantryman in the U. S. Third Army, captured a Nazi flag and sent it as a war trophy to his former co-workers in a San Francisco steamship company office "as a gesture of appreciation for your many kind and cheerful letters."

It was a heavy silk flag about six feet square, beautifully embroidered with a spread eagle on one side and the German iron cross on the other, and with a Nazi emblem in each of the four corners. It was cleared by the army censor as a "bona fide trophy of war, to be admitted duty free into the United States." Young Norton, whose father, Bob, is a well-known commuter from Los Gatos, was hit by shrapnel while crossing the Rhine, but was not seriously wounded.

★ ★ ★

Here's the payoff: The company where Ted formerly worked, with a large war bond quota to meet, displayed the trophy in the lobby of their building. Pinned against it was a Treasury Department Seventh War Loan poster titled "Let's Finish the Job," plus a company card reading "Your purchase of war bonds helped tear down this despised Nazi emblem. Your continued purchase of war bonds will speed the day when the rising sun standard will follow it into the ash can."

Despite the obviousness of the display, some persons who saw it resented it bitterly. "It was all wrong to display the Nazi flag," they argued. One of the company stenographers said it made her sick to her stomach. The building's day janitor and one of the elevator operators walked off the job in protest. Everybody else thought the display was "swell," and a great stimulus to the sale of war bonds. Human reactions, we repeat, are an interesting study.

There is talk of forming a women's auxiliary to the Redwood City Commuters Club. And why not? Women are just as much entitled to seats on the train as men . . . if they can get them without using strong-arm methods. We don't expect women to get up and offer their seats to men . . . but we do expect "equal opportunity" in the competition for same. We saw a woman trip a man the other morning in order to beat him to a seat. That just isn't cricket.

Progress report: Liebman and Winkenwerder still sick but coming along nicely; Tom Cutting now home and able to drink his eggnog without a straw; Olin Nuckolls making slow but steady progress; ditto Miles McDonald; Mrs. Frank Louda up and around again; Charley Hellwig in and out. (Cutting met a Redwood City man, Roy Gregory, in the Palo Alto hospital and promptly signed him up in the Redwood City Commuters Club). Our new member, John Power, has been ill a month and no one knew it. Shame on you, sick committee chairman, and he's a neighbor of yours, too!

Ed Horgan's in L.A. for six weeks on special assignment. Mrs. H. is going down next week to spend a week of her vacation with him. This we learned from pretty Mary O'Donnell who rides the 7:41 with Mrs. Horgan. . . . If you haven't seen them yet, don't miss the flowers at Sequoia High School. . . . What beauty and charm! . . . Hats off to Gardener McIntosh and staff. . . . Chester Armstrong's boy, Richard, announced he was going to a formal party. Chester said, "How can you? You don't have a tuxedo." "We're going to wear ties," said Richard. . . . Bill Curran and Caboose called on Elmer Ross Sunday to get the low down on the state of the nation. . . . While there we saw the best looking and most precocious boy baby in the world, 3-month-old David Ross Hutchinson, Elmer's one and only grandson. . . . The baby's father was an English teacher at Sequoia before he went to the South Pacific with the army. The baby is a chip off the old block and is already correcting Elmer's English. When Elmer said "Let's all have a shot," the baby said, "Let us have a drink, grandpa; and make mine a double bourbon with water." Well, it sounded something like that anyhow.

Ray Spangler's comment about being offered a $350 bribe carried us back to the "good old days" in Chicago, the "gangster decade" (1920 to '30), when we were bureau manager for INS. One day a fight promoter walked into our office and offered us $100 if we would put a prepared story of about 150 words on the news wires about some stumble-bum fighter he was promoting. He made the offer in front of one of the staff, so we couldn't take it, and it made us so mad we offered to throw him out an eight-story window. He looked stunned, and said quite earnestly, "Did I do something wrong? Why, I don't know a newspaper man in Chicago who doesn't take that kind of money." It so happened he didn't know many newspapermen.

Next Saturday, June 2, is Commuters Day in the sale of war bonds on the street in Redwood City. Chairman Paul Allen has arranged a wonderful program, highlighted by the Fort Mason regimental band. Let's all be there and help Paul and his committee sell bonds. If you have bought through your firm in the city, let Paul know. It all counts in the local quota. But buy that extra one — the one you can't afford — next Saturday!

CHP Policy Defended By Cassell

Capt. E. F. Cassell Tuesday defended the policy of his office which virtually excludes privately operated ambulance service from San Mateo County automobile accidents handled by the California Highway Patrol.

Captain Cassell's statement was made in answer to R. H. Ratliff of the Peninsula Ambulance Service of Redwood City which recently charged that state officers refused to allow it to handle seriously injured victims of a Woodside Rd. accident.

The Ratliff firm alleged that its ambulance arrived fully 10 minutes before the county ambulance from San Mateo.

"I consider the statement unfair to the county ambulance service," Cassell announced. "We are perfectly satisfied with the county ambulance service in this case."

Quoting from the CHP radio log, Captain Cassell said the accident was reported at 4:18 p.m. to the sheriff's office. The CHP directed its patrol car to the scene at 4:20.

At 4:24 p.m., Officer Roy Edwards arrived at the scene of the accident. At 4:27 the county ambulance was in service and on its way. It arrived at 4:35 p.m. with a driver, attendant, and a resident doctor.

The Ratliff ambulance arrived only three or four minutes ahead of the county ambulance, Cassell claimed.

"The fact that a doctor (Dr. Robert S. Chan) arrived with the ambulance was particularly important in this case," Cassell said. "The patrol officer administered first aid when he arrived because of bleeding in one case.

"It was very essential that a doctor take charge and see to it that the patients arrived at the hospital in no worse condition than when they left the scene of the accident.

"The county gave ideal service in this care. Handling accident cases by civil service personnel properly trained and schooled is more important than a few minutes gained by calling a private ambulance."

Cassell made it plain that the highway patrol has assigned its ambulance dispatching duties to the county ambulance service at San Mateo, regardless of the location of the accident.

"If the county cannot provide an ambulance, the county will call a private service," he explained. "That lifts this burden from our shoulders. We have enough other work to do."

STORIES OF NAMES THAT MAKE AMERICA GREAT
IT'S A REAL JUNGLE AXE, BILLY AND IT HAS A STORY.
IN 1814, SAMUEL COLLINS, 13 YEARS OLD, WENT TO WORK FOR AN IRON COMPANY IN HARTFORD, CONN. TO HELP SUPPORT HIS WIDOWED MOTHER.
I'VE GOT A JOB, MOTHER.
THE MONEY WILL HELP, SAM.
A BLACKSMITH WHO BOUGHT STEEL FROM THEM TO MAKE AXES ON SPECIAL ORDER GAVE HIM AN IDEA.
FOLKS WANT MY AXES BECAUSE THEY KNOW THEY'RE GOOD.
WONDER IF THEY COULDN'T BE MADE IN A FACTORY.
SO COLLINS AND HIS BROTHER STARTED THE FIRST AXE FACTORY IN THE COUNTRY IN AN OLD GRIST MILL IN 1826.
LET'S PUT OUR NAME ON EVERY AXE.
AS A KIND OF GUARANTEE.
THEY DEVELOPED A STEEL TEMPERED SO WELL IT HELD ITS EDGE THROUGH HEAVY WORK AND THEIR NAME BEGAN TO BE KNOWN.
GOOD AXE YOU'VE GOT THERE.
OUGHT TO BE. IT'S A COLLINS.
SOON THEY BEGAN MAKING OTHER TOOLS WHICH WERE SOLD IN SOUTH AMERICA AS WELL AS ALL OVER THE U.S.
WHAT'S YOUR CARGO BACK?
COLLINS TOOLS, FOR ONE THING.
BECAUSE OF THEIR REPUTATION, A CUBAN TRADER ASKED THEM TO COPY A "MACHETE" FOR WORK IN THE TROPICS.
MAKE IT JUST LIKE THIS, AND I'LL SELL THOUSANDS.
WE'LL COPY IT EXACTLY, SENOR.
WITH THE MACHETE, THEIR FOREIGN TRADE INCREASED AND NATIVES IN 35 LANDS CAME TO KNOW AND TRUST THE COLLINS BRAND NAME.
ME WANT A COLLINS.
PICK IT OUT.
TODAY EVERY U.S. SOLDIER IN THE PACIFIC CARRIES A MACHETE FOR CLEARING THE JUNGLES — AS MUCH OF COLLINS PRODUCTION GOES TO UNCLE SAM.

R.C. Laborer Held After Knife Fight

Pedro Contreras, 44, Redwood City laborer, was charged with assault with a deadly weapon here, following a fight in which he allegedly wielded a butcher knife and a pocket knife against another Mexican Monday, Redwood City police said today.

Contreras, who lives at 111 Hazel St., and Adolfo Alviso of 31 Linden St., were involved in a fight at 2231 El Camino Real when police were summoned at 4:45 p.m., Monday.

Judge McAuliffe Goes Under Knife

Judge Edward I. McAuliffe, Redwood City police judge and justice of the peace of the Third Township, is recuperating in the Palo Alto Hospital following an emergency operation performed Sunday afternoon.

Suffering from a stomach ailment, Judge McAuliffe was rushed to the hospital by ambulance Sunday from Half Moon Bay where he had been fishing.

His condition was satisfactory, his physician said.

Edward Lawler Stricken, Dies

Edward J. Lawler, chief counter clerk in the Redwood City Pacific Gas & Electric Co. office, died suddenly Monday morning in a doctor's office after he had been stricken with a heart ailment.

Mr. Lawler, who was 38, was beginning his 20th year with the P G & E and had worked in the Redwood City office for the past 15 years.

A native of Menlo Park, he went to work for the utility company in its Menlo Park office following his graduation from Sequoia High School.

He leaves his widow, Ann, and two children, Shirley, 11, and Richard, 8, who reside at the family home at 1229 Hopkins Ave.

Mr. Lawler was a member of the Redwood City Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Knights of Columbus, and the Holy Name Society of Mt. Carmel Church.

He was the brother of Mrs. John Patterson of Menlo Park, Pete Lawler, who serves overseas with the army, and the late Andrew Lawler.

Funeral services, to be conducted from the Franklin & Crowe Mortuary, will be announced later.

Sgt. Frank Pensoneau Home on Furlough

S/Sgt. Frank Pensoneau, 22, has arrived at his home at 305 Belmont Ave., Redwood City, where he will spend a 19-day furlough.

Stationed at Lowrie Field, Colo., Pensoneau is an instructor for ball turret gunners on Superfortresses.

Pensoneau completed 5 combat missions while serving with the Eighth Air Force for nine months, and wears the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clutsers, and the Presidential Unit Citation. He entered the service in December, 1942.

He is the son of Mrs. Mildred Furre.

Robert F. Dierker Reported Missing

T/4 Robert E. Dierker, son of Mrs. Elsie M. Dierker of Manzanita Rd., Belmont, is listed as missing in action in the European Theater of Operations, according to a joint army-navy casualty list made public Tuesday.

The only authentic portrait of Columbus belongs to the De Orchi family of Como, Italy.

Ideas for Spring Meals

Spring ushers in its own fruits and vegetables that are tonics for the appetite. You'll want to take advantage of the seasonal produce to serve new-tasting dishes that are also attractive to the eye. To bring new relish to the family meals try these recipes.

CREAMED NEW POTATOES AND PEAS

Add cooked, peeled, new potatoes and cooked peas to medium thick white sauce, sprinkle with paprika.

RADISH SLAW

Combine thinly sliced, washed radishes with salad dressing, season with salt and pepper, and garnish with parsley.

ASPARAGUS WITH MOCK HOLLANDAISE SAUCE

Beat 1 egg white until stiff but not dry; fold in 1 cup mayonnaise. Pour to 1½-inch thickness in shallow baking dish; place 4 to 5 minutes under very hot broiler until delicately browned, about 1 minute. Makes 1 cup. Serve over asparagus.

RHUBARB CREAM PIE

¾ cup sugar
1 tsp. cinnamon
4 tsps. cornstarch
⅛ tsp. salt
2 cups cooked unsweetened rhubarb and juice
1 tbsp. grated orange rind
3 eggs
3 tbsps. orange marmalade
Baked pastry shell

Combine sugar, cinnamon, cornstarch, and salt; add to rhubarb; and cook about 10 minutes, or until thickened, stirring constantly. Add orange rind and beaten egg yolks; cook 2 minutes longer, stirring constantly. Cool; pour into baked pastry shell. Beat egg whites until stiff and dry; fold in orange marmalade. Pile lightly on pie; bake 15 minutes, or until well browned, in slow oven (300° F.). Makes 1 9-inch pie. Serves 6.
